2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused was found in illegal possession of 1.250 kilograms of Ganja.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he is sought to be implicated on the confession of co-accused; that the contraband was seized from the co-accused and that in any case, further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the petitioner is sought to be implicated on the confession of the co-accused, the contraband was seized from the co-accused and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
