ORDER

This Writ Petition has been filed challenging the orders of the respondent dated 30.04.2024 and to quash the same.

2. Ms.Amirthapoonkodi Dinakaran, learned Government Advocate (Taxes), takes notice on behalf of the Respondent.

3. By consent of the parties, the main Writ Petition is taken up for disposal at the time of admission stage itself.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that show cause notice dated 20.10.2023 was issued to the petitioner, for which the petitioner submitted its reply on 30.11.2023 along with supporting documents. But the respondent without considering the same has passed the impugned orders dated 30.04.2024, demanding tax along with interest and penalty for the Assessment Year 2021-2022.

5. Further, he would submit that impugned assessment order came to be passed without affording an opportunity of hearing to the Petitioner and therefore the same is in violation of principles of natural justice and hence prays to set aside the same.

6. The learned Government Advocate (Taxes) appearing for the Respondent submitted that though the Show Cause Notice followed by reminder notices were issued to the Petitioner, the Petitioner neither filed its reply nor appeared for personal hearing and therefore the assessment order came be passed.

7. In reply, the learned counsel for the petitioner would fairly submit that the petitioner is now ready and willing to pay 25% of the disputed tax liability made by the respondent in the event of providing an opportunity to them to file their reply along with the required documents to substantiate their claim, for which, the learned Government Advocate (Taxes) appearing for the Respondent has no serious objection.

W.P.No.11320 of 2025

8. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Taxes) for the Respondent and also perused the materials available on record.

9. In the present case, it is the case of the petitioner that though the petitioner submitted its reply to the show cause notice, the respondent without considering the same has passed the assessment order.

10. Further, it appears that opportunity of personal hearing was not granted to the Petitioner prior to passing of impugned order. Hence, this Court is of the view that the impugned order passed is in violation of principles of natural justice and it is just and necessary to provide an opportunity to the petitioner to establish their case on merits. In such view of the matter, this Court is inclined to set aside the impugned orders dated 30.04.2024 passed by the Respondent. Accordingly, this Court passes the following order:-

(i) The order impugned herein is set aside and the matter is remanded to the Respondent for fresh consideration on condition that as volunteered by the Petitioner, they shall pay 25% of disputed tax to the Respondent within a period of
