ORDER

The instant writ petition has been filed with a prayer for issuing a Mandamus, directing the respondents to consider the petitioner representation dated 25.03.2025 for regularize the petitioner service from the date of her initial appointment dated 25.09.1996 and consequently, to direct the respondents to pay pension and monetary benefits with all consequential benefits and arrears.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that she was initially appointed as a Daily Wages Employee in Salem Corporation on 25.09.1996 and during 2006, her service was regularised and she was retired from service on 30.06.2019 after rendering more than 23 years of service. The learned counsel for the petitioner would further submit that though she joined in service on 25.09.1996, the respondents had taken into consideration only her date of regularisation for the purpose of calculating the pension. Hence, she has sent a representation on 25.03.2025 claiming regularisation from the date of her initial appointment and such representation is still pending with the respondents.

3. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents 1 and 2 and the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the 3rd respondent would strongly object the above contention and would submit that the contention of the petitioner seeking regularisation from the date of her initial appointment as a Causal Labour cannot be considered in view of the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Karnataka and others vs. V.Umadevi and others reported in MANU/SC/1918/2006 : AIR 2006 SC 1806 and Secretary to Government, School Education Department, Chennai vs. Thiru.R.Govindaswamy and others (C.A.Nos.2726 – 2729 of 2014, dated 21.02.2014).

4. However, the fact remains that the petitioner's representation is still pending with the respondents since 25.03.2025.

5. In such view of the matter, without going into the merits of the writ petition, this Court deems it appropriate to direct the respondents to consider the petitioner's representation dated 25.03.2025 and pass orders on it's own merits and in accordance with law, within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order.
