2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported 5 units of river sand.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and that he is the owner of the lorry and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that there are two previous cases against the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the contraband was seized, the petitioner is on bail in two other cases and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
