2. When the matter came up for hearing on 21.04.2025, this Court directed the learned Additional Government Pleader to take instructions. Accordingly, the matter was listed for hearing today.

3. When the matter was taken up for hearing today, the learned Additional Government Pleader on instructions submitted that the survey has already been conducted and the boundary stones have been laid. The relevant report was also placed before this Court.

4. In the light of the above development, no further orders can be passed in this writ petition. It is made clear that mere conducting a survey in the subject property will not take away the right of the petitioner in the subject property. Therefore, it is always left open to the petitioner to approach the competent Civil Court and seek for the appropriate relief. In view of the fact that the survey has been completed, the revenue authorities or the police authorities need not interfere with the dispute and let the parties agitate their dispute before the competent Civil Court.

5.This writ petition is disposed of in the above terms. No Costs.

Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
