2. The case of the prosecution is that first accused found in illegal possession of 100 grams of ganja; that the confession statement of the first accused revealed that the petitioner was also involved in the said offence. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that the contraband seized was not recovered from the petitioner and he is sought to be implicated as an accused based on the confession of the co-accused; that the petitioner is in custody from 03.03.2025 and hence prayed for grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner is sought to be implicated on the confession statement of co-accused and that the contraband seized was not from the petitioner.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that no recovery was made from this petitioner and contraband was seized from co-accused and based on his confession, the petitioner is sought to be implicated
