2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner found in illegal possession of 750 grams of ganja. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the contraband was seized and that the petitioner is in custody from 03.03.2025 and hence, he may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the contraband has been seized from the petitioner.

5. Considering the period of incarceration and the fact that the contraband seized is small quantity and since further custody is not required for the purpose of interrogation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
