2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a wordy quarrel, the petitioner along with the other accused assaulted the de facto complainant with knife.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the petitioner has the previous cases and the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioner is on bail in the previous cases and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
