2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner sought for information from the defacto complainant who was working in Juvenile Justice Board and abused her in filthy language and prevented the other Government Servants from exercising duty and thus committed the aforesaid offence.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that in any case, the petitioner is in judicial custody from 12.02.2025 and since further custody of the petitioner is not required and he may be released on bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner and further submitted the petitioner has four previous cases.

5. Considering the nature of allegation against the petitioner and that the petitioner is on bail in the other previous cases and the period of incarceration, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:
