2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity due to land dispute, the petitioners assaulted the de facto complainant with an iron rod.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent; that they have been falsely implicated in this case; the petitioners and the de facto complainant are relatives; the petitioners have no bad antecedents and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted the petitioners have no bad antecedents; the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a counter case.
