Petitioner/M/s.Leer Chem India Pvt Ltd is a Chemical Manufacturer originally registered as “Small Enterprise” under the MSMED Act, 2006, it supplied chemicals to the 4th respondent/M/s.Futan Leathers which did not paid, despite repeated reminders. The learned counsel would submit that the petitioner filed its claim (MSEFC/CR/316/2023) with the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council (MSEFC), it still qualified as a Small Enterprises. However, in the council meeting held on 23.02.2024, the petitioner had been reclassified as “Medium” and solely on this ground, the MSEFC dismissed the claim for lack of jurisdiction. It is further submitted that the application was filed as the petitioner's company was Small and later reclassified as medium unit under section 24 of MSMED Act and further clarified by Government Notification No.S.O.4926(E) dated 18.10.2022, subsequent reclassification does not extinguish the benefits or remedies that arose when an enterprise was still “Small”. Therefore, the petitioner is entitled to proceed before the MSEFC for its unpaid dues and statutory interest.

3. The learned Government Advocate takes notice for the respondents. The learned Government Advocate would submit that since the unit was small at the time

5. In this case on hand, initially the petitioner's enterprise was small enterprises and thereafter in the Council meeting held on 23.02.2024, the petitioner enterprise had been reclassified as Medium enterprise. Hence, the claim of the petitioner was rejected on the ground of lack of jurisdiction.

6. It is pertinent to note, at the time of filing claim petition, the petitioner enterprise was small enterprise, the petitioner has got every right to claim the MSME benefits. Hence, the impugned order passed by the first respondent is liable to be
