ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 189(2), 118(2), 296(b), 115(2), 351(3) BNS, 2023, in Crime No.110 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the other accused person had a quarrel with the de facto complainant, who is a chef at Ashoka Mahal, over the insufficient food supplied in the function and attacked him, due to which the de facto complainant suffered injuries and admitted in the hospital. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner was not involved in the offence; that he has been falsely implicated in the case and that the petitioner is ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there is no previous case against petitioner and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering, the nature of allegation against the petitioner, the submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, that the petitioner has no previous case and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Mannargudi, Thiruvarur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10:30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the
