2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant is the mother of the victim girl; that the petitioner is the Managing Director of the company where the victim girl was working; that he made some remarks about her body and abused the victim girl and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and produced a copy of the FIR.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, the nature of the allegations, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and hence, inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
