ORDER

This is the second anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner before this Court.

2. The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 126(2), 115(2) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, 2002, in Crime No.260 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

3. The case of the prosecution is that on account of prior enmity, the petitioner along with the other accused attacked the defacto complainant and abused her in filthy language.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; that no injuries were sustained by the defacto complainant; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, submitted that there is one previous case against the petitioner and he is on bail in that case.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that no injuries were sustained by the defacto complainant, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Palladam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000 (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10:30 a.m.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance
