2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity, the petitioners along with the other accused assaulted the de facto complainant with a knife and a wooden log, abused and threatened him of dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent; that they have been falsely implicated in this case; that the injured was discharged from the hospital and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital, there is a counter case and the third petitioner is not a named accused in the FIR.

5. As regards the third petitioner, as he is not a named accused in the FIR, his petition is closed.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations, the injured has been discharged from the hospital, there is a counter case and since custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the first and the second petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the first and second petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Cheyyar on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the said Magistrate, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
