The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2), 326(A) of BNS r/w 21(1) of Mines and Minerals Act, in Crime No.37 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 25.01.2025, the first accused was found illegally transporting one unit of river sand in a tractor and trailer without registration number; that the first accused had confessed that on the instructions of the petitioner, for the purpose of laying of road, he had taken the river sand. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit the the petitioner is innocent; that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case; that he was not involved in the said offence and that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the co-accused has been arrested and released on bail and that the petitioner has no previous case

5. Considering the fact that the the contraband was seized from the co-accused; that the petitioner has no previous case; that the co-accused has been arrested and released on bail, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pallipet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory
