2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted with iron pipe, as a result of which, deceased sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false and in any case the petitioner is in custody from 25.03.2025; and that further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; the period of incarceration; and since further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to
