2.It is the case of the prosecution that when the officers from Fisheries Department were about to remove the pond wherein the accused were allegedly growing fresh water prawns along with fishes based on the order passed by the District Collector, the petitioner along with the other accused had waylaid the officials and had not allowed them to remove the said pond. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; that the pond has been removed and that the the petitioner is in custody from 19.03.2025 and hence, further custody of the petitioner is not required.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are six previous cases pending against the petitioner and he is on bail in those cases and that the alleged pond has been removed.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the pond has been removed, the petitioner is on bail in the previous cases and since further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Parangipettai, Cuddalore, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
