4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the stolen articles have been recovered and that there are two previous cases pending against the petitioner and she is on bail in those cases.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the stolen articles have been recovered, the petitioner is on bail in the previous cases and since further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate, Avinashi, and on further conditions that:
