2.It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner, who is aged about 60 years and the victim girl, who is aged about 9 years are neighbours; that on the date of occurrence, while the victim girl was playing outside her house, the petitioner stood naked and called the victim girl and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the allegations are false; that there has been a dispute between the neighbours and hence a false case has been foisted on account of the same; that in any case, considering the nature of allegations and the period of incarceration, he may be released on bail.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and produced a copy of the statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 of BNSS, 2023, wherein the victim had stated that the petitioner stood naked near his house and called the victim girl.

5.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the fact that the statement of the victim has been recorded, the investigation is at the fag end, the period of incarceration and the aforesaid facts, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Sessions Judge, Fast Track Mahila Court, Tiruvarur, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;
