The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) and 326(a) of BNS in Crime No.66 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, while the respondent police were on the routine patrol duty, they found that the accused was involved in illegal transportation of 3 units of sand in a lorry bearing Registration No.TN-32-AB-5403; that on seeing the police, the accused fled away from the spot, leaving behind the lorry and the sand; that upon investigation, the respondent had filed a case against the driver and owner of the said lorry.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner had never committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution; and that the petitioner is ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and also undertake to appear and to co-operate for the investigation, and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instruction submitted that the total quantity of sand involved in this case is 3 units; that the petitioner has no bad antecedents; and that the investigation is pending, hence opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegation against the petitioner, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, the sand and the vehicle involved in the offence was seized and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
