2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused were found illegally selling 30 bottles of pundy arrack, each containing 180 ml.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that she has been falsely implicated in this case; that the second accused was arrested and released on bail; that the petitioner is implicated on the confession of the co-accused and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband were seized.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegations, the fact that the contraband has been seized, that the petitioner is implicated on the confession of the co-accused; the co-accused was arrested and released on bail and since, custodial
