2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 26 bottles of Old Chef XXX Rum bottles.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that she has been falsely implicated in this case; and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband were seized and the petitioner has two previous cases.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegations, the fact that the contraband has been seized, the petitioner is on bail in other two previous cases and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
