20(b)(ii)(B), 25 and 29(1) of NDPS Act.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in illegal possession of 2.100 kgs of Ganja.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that contraband has been seized; and that in any case, further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that contraband, involved in this case is intermediate quantity and the same has been seized; and that the petitioner has 3 other previous cases of similar nature registered in the year 2021 and 2022, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the petitioner is on bail in other cases, contraband involved in this case is an intermediate quantity and the same has been seized, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not required for
