2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had illegal relationship with A1 for which, the petitioner along with other accused persons threatened the defacto complainant and also snatched 3 1/2 sovereigns of gold and cash of Rs.3,500/- from him. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been implicated in this case; that the petitioner is sought to be implicated based on the confession of the co-accused and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the articles were recovered; that the accused A1, A2 and A6 were still in custody; and the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the fact that the petitioner is sought to be implicated based on confession of co-accused; the main accused were arrested and the stolen
