(Cr.No.115 of 2025)

Respondent

For Petitioner: Mr.Swami Subramanian

For Respondent(s): Mr.S.Balaji,
Government Advocate (Criminal Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 281 and 106(2) of BNS 2023, in Crime No.115 of 2025 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had driven his car in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against the bike ridden by the deceased and caused death of the defacto complainant's brother. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the allegations are false; that the operation of the offence under Section 106(2) of BNS, which is the non-bailable offence has been suspended by the Parliament; that the respondent ought not to have registered the FIR for the said offence and that the other offences are bailable.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and confirms that except Section 106(2) of BNS all other offences are bailable.

5. Since the operation of Section 106(2) of BNS has been suspended by the Parliament and the other offences are bailable, the anticipatory bail petition may not maintainable. It is open to the petitioner to seek bail in accordance with law.
