The petitioner herein has been implicated as an accused based on the confession statement of the first accused, wherein it is stated that there was a transaction between the petitioner and the accused.

3. In pursuance of implication of the petitioner as accused, the petitioner's bank account has been frozen on the request made by the third respondent to the fourth respondent. Now, the investigation is completed and the third respondent has also filed a final report and the same has been taken cognizance in C.C.No.38 of 2025 for trial on the file of the Additional District Court/Presiding Officer, Special Court for Essential Commodities Act Cases, Coimbatore. The petitioner was arrested and released on bail. That apart, a sum of Rs.1,14,008.88/- is currently lying the bank account of the petitioner.

4. In view of the above investigation, freezing of account even after taking cognizance by the trial Court would not survive any purpose. Hence, the fourth respondent is directed to de-freeze the account of the petitioner bearing Account No.158110000945 and the petitioner is permitted to operate his account.
