Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) of BNS, 2023 (under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(i) of IPC) r/w 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.57 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioners and the de facto complainant are working in a private finance Company; that due to previous enmity between the petitioners and the de facto complainant over collection of monthly installments, there was a wordy quarrel between them and that the petitioners attacked the de facto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent; that the petitioners have not committed any offence; and that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioners have no bad antecedents and that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering, the nature of allegations, the fact that injured has been discharged from the hospital, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate II, Pollachi, on conditions that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
