a residential plot. However, upon the petitioner approaching the site it was seen to be a rocky terrain and therefore, the petitioner approached this Court for allotment of an alternative plot. Earlier, this Court directed the respondents to consider the representation with reference to the prayer of the petitioner to allot the commercial plot No.606A by considering the representation of the petitioner. Accordingly, when the respondents passed orders, they submitted that the petitioner should pay the then market value and thereafter, they did not accept the same also. Therefore, a second round of writ petition was filed in WP.No.20880 of 2021 and, in which also once again the respondents were directed to consider the representation within a period of 12 weeks. Even now, the petitioner is ready to pay any reasonable price that is offered by the respondents in respect of the commercial plot, but the respondents are going back from their original promise and they tried to auction the plot but however they remain unsuccessful as on date.

3. When the writ petition came up for hearing, the Learned Counsel taking notice on behalf the respondents on instructions by pointing out to the communication dated 19.10.2024 which is a letter written by the 4th respondent to the 2nd respondent would submit that the respondent-Board has instructed him to submit that if the petitioner now pays the same amount which is mentioned in the said communication that is a total sum of Rs.10,20,25,000, the respondent-Board is willing to allot and also execute sale deed in the manner known to law.

4. Upon such submission, the Learned Senior Counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner would submit that the petitioner would be very much willing to deposit the said amount.

5. In view thereof, this writ petition is disposed of on the following terms:

prevail if the petitioner is not able to deposit the said sum within the said date and the respondents 2 to 4 will be bound by the above rate, if only the petitioner deposit the said sum within the time as aforesaid.
