The Criminal Original Petition has been filed seeking to call for the records relating to Cr.No.138 of 2024 against the petitioners for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 364, 384 and 506(2) of IPC on the file of the Sub-Inspector of Police, Semmancheri Police Station and quash the same based on the compromise arrived between the parties.

2. The crux of the allegations in the FIR is that on 24.05.2024, when the defacto complainant returning to his home, the accused suddenly collided the defacto complainant's car and demanded money. The defacto complainant after escaping lodged the complaint. Hence, the FIR.

3. The petitioners and the de-facto complainant/R2 appeared before this Court and were identified by their respective counsel as well as by Mr.Bright Jabavino, Special Sub-Inspector of Police, T-16 Semmancheri Police Station.

4. On being enquired by this Court, the defacto complainant stated that he has amicably settled the dispute with the petitioners and he is not willing to pursue the the criminal proceedings and therefore, seeks to quash the same.

5. The main issue that requires the consideration of this Court is as to whether this Court can quash the criminal proceedings involving non-compoundable offences pending against the petitioners. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Parbathbhai Aahir @ Parbathbhai Vs. State of Gujarat, reported in 2017 9 SCC 641 and in case of The State of Madhya Pradesh Vs. Dhruv Gurjar and Another reported in (2019) 2 MLJ Crl 10, has given sufficient guidelines that must be taken into consideration by this Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 482 of Cr.P.C, to quash non-compoundable offences. One very important test that has been laid down is that the Court must necessarily examine if the crime in question is purely individual in nature or a crime against the society with overriding public interest. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that offences against the society with overriding public interest even if it gets settled between the parties, cannot be quashed by this Court.

6. In the present case, the offences in question are purely individual/personal in nature. It involves dispute between the petitioners and the second respondent and quashing the proceedings will not affect any overriding public interest in this case and no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the criminal proceedings.
