2. The case of the prosecution is that based on a secret information, the respondent intercepted a vehicle and found that the first accused was in possession of 2.25 grams of Methamphetamine; that on confession of the first accused, it was revealed that first accused along with other accused had purchased the contraband from the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false and the petitioner is sought to be implicated on the confession of co-accused; that the contraband seized from the co-accused was intermediate quantity and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner was implicated on the confession of the first accused; that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, no contraband was seized from the petitioner, the petitioner is sought to be implicated on the confession of the co-accused, the contraband seized from the co-accused was intermediate quantity and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Additional District/Presiding Officer, Special Court for Essential Commodities Act Cases, Coimbatore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
