2. The case of the prosecution is that on secret information, the respondent police went to the scene of occurrence on 16.03.2025 at about 08.00 a.m, and found that the petitioner was illegally transporting 25 bottles of brandy in a two wheeler.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the bottles were seized and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the fact that the property was recovered, the petitioner has no bad antecedents and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court
