2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 2.108 kgs of banned Tobacco products. Hence, the case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and she has been falsely implicated in this case; that the contraband has been seized and that the petitioner is in custody from 24.03.2025 and hence, she may be released on bail.

4.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the petitioner has two previous cases and that the contraband has been seized from the petitioner.

5.Considering the nature of allegations and the period of incarceration, the fact that though the petitioner has two previous cases, she is on bail in those cases and since further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
