2. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information, the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of 5 kgs of Ganja.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that contraband has been seized; and that in any case, further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that seized contraband in this case is an intermediate quantity; that the petitioner has 2 previous cases registered during the year 2022 and 2023 under NDPS Act for the possession of intermediate quantity of contraband, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the petitioner is on bail in other previous cases, the seized contraband in this case is an intermediate quantity, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with
