2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the land dispute, there was a quarrel between the accused and the de-facto complainant, during which, the accused abused and assaulted the defacto complainant with knife, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the allegations are false; that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR; and in any case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioners are not required and sought anticipatory bail for the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioners have no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioners have no bad antecedents; and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the first petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m, until further orders and the second petitioner, being a lady, shall appear before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.
