Petitioner(s)

Vs

The State Represented by,
The Inspector of Police,
Villivakkam Police Station,
Chennai.
(Crime No.142 of 2025)

Respondent(s)

For Petitioner(s) : Mr.R.Subramanian

For Respondent(s) : Mr.S.Balaji,
Government Advocate (Criminal Side)

PRAYER To enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest by the respondent in Crime No.142 of 2025 on the file of the Respondent.

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent for the offences punishable under Sections 189(2), 296(b), 118(2), 351(3) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.142 of 2025, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

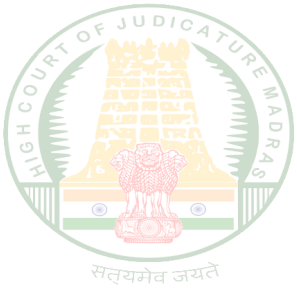

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 21.03.2025, at about 2.30 a.m.,

the petitioners along with other accused persons in an inebriated condition came near the house of the defacto complainant, due to this, there was a wordy quarrel between them and the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant with wooden log and caused injuries to him. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case; and in any case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioners are not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; and that the petitioners have no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioners have no bad antecedents and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XIII Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;
