2. The case of the prosecution is that, the accused had illegally transported 8 units of river sand in a lorry.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and that the petitioner is the owner of the lorry and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the sand illegally transported by the petitioner was seized and that there is a previous case against the petitioner and he is on bail in that case.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, contraband was seized from the petitioner, the fact that the petitioner is on bail in the other cases and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain
