2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 100 Brandy bottles.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband were seized and the petitioner has six previous cases.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegations, the fact that the contraband has been seized; the petitioner is willing to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme; the petitioner is on bail in other previous cases and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to make a non-refundable deposit of Rs.10,000/- [Rupees Ten Thousand Only] directly to the credit of “District Legal Services Authority, Ranipet District”, without prejudice to their rights and contentions before the trial Court, on such deposit and production of proof, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate, Arakkonam on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
