2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was returning to home, the petitioner along with other accused, who are well known to the defacto complainant, waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him in filthy language, threatened him of dire consequences and also robbed a sum of Rs.3,500/- from the defacto complainant's shirt pocket at knife point. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner is in custody from 28.02.2025; and that further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has 8 other previous cases, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of
