The Official Trustee has field the financial implications of the prayer. It is seen from the report of the Official Trustee that there is enough surplus income to grant the request of the applicant. However, Clause-9 of the scheme decree reads as follows:-

“9. The trustee shall pay on or before the 10th of each month Rs.50/- to the 1st defendant in accordance with my finding on issue 4 in my judgment dated 21.01.1942.”

2. The finding of Issue No.4 in C.S.No.204 of 1940 reads as follows:-

“Issue 4: The parties are agreed that the 1st plaintiff and the 1st defendant, as the present senior most members of the family of the founder, should take out of the income of the properties acquired by Arunachalam Chettiar and dealt with by him in his will as his self-acquisitions, a sum of Rs.50/- per mensem as allowance for themselves as they had been doing till 1934 or thereabouts. This allowance in their favour will be incorporated in the scheme. The question whether they should not get any allowance for the period from 1934 till now is reserved for further consideration after the accounts are taken.”

A No. 2131 of 2020

3. In view of the above, there will be an order for payment of a sum of Rs.35,000/- to the 1st applicant, who is the senior most member of the family of Singaravelu Chetty as of today.
