2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused threatened the defacto complainant with deadly weapons and also robbed Rs.700/- from the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner is in custody from 12.04.2025; and that further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that out of Rs.700/- robbed by the petitioner, Rs.230/- has been recovered; and that the petitioner has one previous case, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the petitioner is on bail in other previous case and that since further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
