2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.11.2024, when the respondent police was in regular patrol duty, the petitioner along with other accused were illegally transporting 4 unit of river sand. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is in no way connected with the alleged offence. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police, submitted that the petitioner along with other accused had illegally transported 4 unit of river sand. He submits that there are totally two accused in this case. He also submits that there are five previous cases pending against the petitioner which are similar in nature. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
