2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners 1 and 2 are husband and wife. The first petitioner is the grandson of one Sivalingam. There is a property dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the defacto complainant who is one among the nine legal heirs of the said Sivalingam had lodged the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
