2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused waylaid the defacto complainant, demanded money; that when the same was refused by him, the accused persons abused him in filthy language and robbed Rs.10,800/- from the defacto complainant at knife point; and that they also threatened the defacto complainant of dire consequences. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner is in custody from 17.03.2025; and that further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has previous cases, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the petitioner is on bail in other previous cases and that since
