applicable to all the employees of the bank. The respondent Union is claiming to enjoy the support of the employees of the petitioner and has been espousing the cause of employees working in the petitioner bank. One A.R.Suraiyabanu has been employed with the petitioner bank from the year 1993 and she was working as the Manager and was acting as the In-charge Branch Manager of Pethappampatti Branch at the relevant time. The petitioner bank has initiated disciplinary action against her for certain acts of misconduct committed by her during the service at Pethappampatti Branch, by causing huge financial loss to the petitioner bank. After conducting disciplinary proceedings, the petitioner has imposed the punishment of stoppage of 10 years annual increment with cumulative effect. Aggrieved by the same, the respondent union raised a dispute before the Principal Labour Court, Coimbatore seeking to espouse the cause of the said employee and sought to set aside the order of punishment in I.D.No.31 of 2020. The labour court, by its order dated 04.02.2025 has held that the enquiry against the said A.R.Suraiyabnu was not fair and proper and conducted against the principles of natural justice. Apart from it, the labour court has also held that it cannot go into the issue that the said A.R.Suraiyabanu is not a workman as the Government has not referred the said issue for adjudication.
