COMMON ORDER

All these Writ Petitions have been filed against the action of the respondent Corporation in not taking into account of the service rendered by the petitioners as temporary casual labourer/nominal muster roll for the purpose of pension, which is illegal, arbitrary and contrary to law and also sought for consequential direction to the respondents to take into account the 50% of the service rendered by them as temporary casual labourer/nominal muster roll while calculating pension at the time of their superannuation.

2. It appears that the petitioners have made representations to the respondents on different dates from 02.03.2017 to 03.05.2017, requesting the respondents, to extend the benefit of taking into account of 50% of the service rendered prior to their absorption, for the purpose of pension as was granted to other similarly placed persons.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the said representations are still pending with the respondents and so far no orders have been passed.

4.The learned counsel for the respondents also accepted that the representations of the petitioners have been pending with the respondents and the same will be considered and disposed of within the time frame as per the directions of this Court. He further submits that if the petitioners intend to submit the representations afresh, the same will also be considered and disposed of within the time frame that may be fixed by this Court.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and after hearing the respective learned counsel for the parties, this Court is of the petitioners are interested to make fresh representations, they are permitted to do so.

No costs.
