2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found to be in illegal possession of 5 liters of ID arrack and was also in possession of a country made gun without permission.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and hence prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the contraband has been seized and that there is one previous case against the petitioner and he is on bail in that case.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the contraband has been seized, and the petitioner is on bail in the previous case and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation,
