2. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information, the A1 to A3 were found in possession of 1600 grams of Ganja; and that based on the confession of the co-accused, the petitioner has been implicated.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that contraband has been seized; and that in any case, further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that seized contraband is intermediate in quantity; that no recovery is made from this petitioner; and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, no recovery is made from this petitioner and the seized contraband involved in this case is an intermediate quantity, this Court is of the view that further custody of the
