ABDUL QUDDHOSE.J.,

As directed by this Court, the names of the respondents are printed in the cause list today. The respondents have been duly served with the notices in this application. Despite service of notice, the respondents have chosen not to enter appearance in this application. Hence, the respondents are set exparte by this Court.

2. The applicant is having the benefit of an order of interim injunction in these applications since 24.04.2025. The interim injunction was granted by this Court after this Court found that the applicant has made out a prima facie case and they also established balance of convenience and irreparable hardship. Since the respondents have been set exparte by this Court and since the applicant has made out prima facie case and they also established
