29(i) of NDPS Act.

2. The case of the prosecution is that based on secret information, the A1 was found in possession of 1.300 kgs of Ganja; and that the petitioner has been implicated, based on the confession of A1.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that contraband has been seized from the co-accused; that no recovery is made from the petitioner and that in any case, further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed that the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that contraband has been seized, which is intermediate in quantity; that the petitioner is sought to be implicated based on the confession of the co-accused; and that the petitioner has 5 other previous cases, in which, he is on bail.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the petitioner is on bail in other previous cases, the seized contraband involved in this case is an intermediate quantity, no recovery is made from this petitioner and he is sought to be implicated based on the confession of the co-accused, this Court is of the view that further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the XV Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town, Chennai.

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
